

Front Cover

Lucy The Fairy

by:

Name of Author

Title Page

Lucy The Fairy

Name of Author

Griffis Superstar Press
Feltwell Elementary School
RAF Feltwell, England
Teacher: Karen Griffis
©December 2010

Dedication Page

Dedicate your book to someone special and tell why that special someone is so special 😊

Dedication

I dedicate this book to my little brother, Ryan.
When I was making this book, he loved looking at the pictures and he always laughed at them. I also dedicate this book to my mom. She helped me get a few ideas for the pictures.

Glossary

(Create this page when there are difficult words in your story. Give the definitions)

Glossary

Fortunately: Fortunately means that something good is happening or about to happen.

Unfortunately: Unfortunately means something bad is happening or is going to happen.

F or tunately

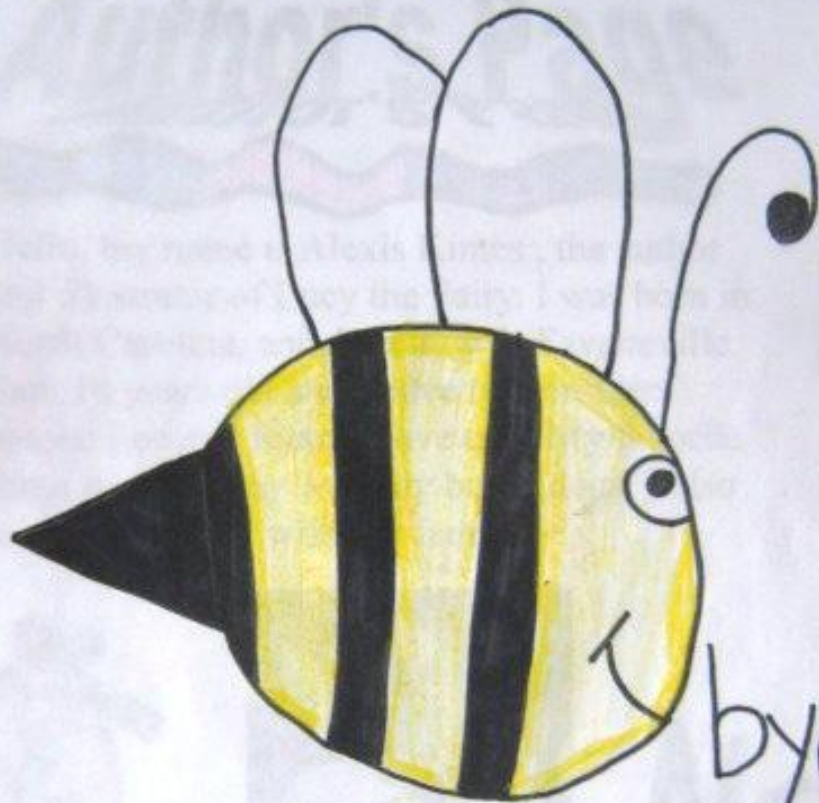

U n f o r t u n a t e l y

First Page

There once was a fairy named Lucy who had a wonderful home in a flower.

The End Page

bye

The END

Author's Page

(Tell about yourself, your hobbies, etc.)
Always include a photo of yourself!

Author's Page

Hello, my name is _____, the author and illustrator of Lucy the Fairy. I was born in North Carolina, and the city was Fayetteville. I am 10 years old and I have two brothers named Lee and Ryan. I love cats. My favorite thing to do is play with my boxer dogs. I also love to hang out with my family.

NC

M E!

Summary

Briefly tell what your story
Is about. Make it so interesting That others will want to read your Book!

Summary

This book is about a sweet fairy named Lucy. She is on her way to Ron's Super Wand Shop. On her way home, some unfortunate things happen to her. If you read this book you will find out what they are. Enjoy!!!

