THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington, DC
January 25, 2012

Please accept my congratulations on receiving the President's Educational Award. I am pleased to join other family, friends and teachers in recognizing this outstanding accomplishment.

Education is the key to providing our Nation's young people with the skills and knowledge necessary to achieve their dreams and succeed in the 21st century. By working this hard, you have shown a dedication to meeting this challenge and to reaching the highest academic standards. Teachers like you will shape the future of our country's young men, women and I commend you for setting a powerful example for all young Americans.

I encourage you to strive for your highest goals and I wish you the very best in the years ahead.
