A large board with a red border containing several hand-drawn illustrations. The drawings depict various figures and scenes, including a person in a red outfit, a person in a yellow outfit, and a person in a white outfit. There are also drawings of a car and a house. The board is decorated with small flags and stars.

A projection screen displaying a colorful game interface. The interface features a large question mark, a character, and various icons and numbers. The background of the screen is dark with some light effects.
